All of the Resolutions Voted for at the 4th General Meeting of Unitholders Announced

We would like inform you that all of the following matters were resolved at the 4th General Meeting of Unitholders of Star Asia Investment Corporation (“SAR”) held on March 31, 2020 (the “Unitholders’ Meeting”).

Following the approval and adoption by resolution of all of the agenda items proposed by Sakura Sogo REIT Investment Corporation (“SSR”) at its general meeting of unitholders held yesterday, as well as the approval and adoption by resolution of all of the agenda items proposed by SAR at the Unitholders’ Meeting as described below, SAR will continue working diligently towards effecting the merger with SSR, while paying attention to conflicts of interests, and with the overall objective of maximizing unitholders’ value. (Provided that the effectuation of the merger will be subject to satisfaction of certain, ordinary conditions prescribed in the Merger Agreement.) Furthermore, SAR will seek growth of distributions per unit while aiming for stabilization of earnings from its managed assets, after the effective date of the merger.
